

One week certificate course was organized by Department of Architecture on “New Construction Techniques for Rural Areas” from 30th April -4th May. The coordinators of the course were Ar. AmanjeetKaur & Ar. NeetuKapoor. Participants from surrounding institutes attended the course with great zeal. The course emphasized on use of various innovations in the field of low cost and traditional techniques and materials. Expert lectures were delivered by faculty from Architecture Department, Civil, Computer and Electrical department.

