

A series of guest lectures was organized by the Department of Management and Social Sciences, NIT, Hamirpur on 29-01-10, for the MBA students. Prof. R.K.Gupta, Prof. Finance, Punjab University, Chandigarh has delivered two lectures on Taxation and Accounting. In first session, he spoke about direct and indirect taxes. He briefed about the upcoming tax proposal which would be enacted from 2011.

In second session, he enlightened the students with the concept of Accounting and touched Financial, Management and Cost accounting with eminent use of practical aspects of these concepts. He explained how accounting concept helps in effective and profitable decision making.

In third session, a lecture on Business Communication was delivered by Prof. R.K. Prashar, Vice-Principal DAV College Jalandhar. In this session, he explained the various aspects regarding effective communication in business world.

Last session was addressed by Prof. Ashwani Sharma and Prof. Lakhbir Singh, where they talked about internal motivation and how it will effect in developing the personality of the person and increasing the confidence for the effective communication. It led many students to discuss various problems and challenges being faced on the practical front.

These were interactive sessions and the experts addressed various queries and doubts of the students and exposed them to the real world.