Dated: 05/01/2022

NOTICE

As a number of new cases have been reported on campus, students residing in hostels need not panic and should stay calm in the hostels.

UG IV and UG III year students, who have arrived in the hostels, can stay in hostels if they desire. However looking at the surge in the new cases they can plan to move to their native places till further orders.

For UG II year students, those who have arrived in the campus or are in onward journey shall be allowed to stay in the hostel, if they desire. Those who have not started the journey as yet are advised not to start the journey till further communication from the institute.

For UG I year the students, classes shall continue to be in online mode till further order.

Those who will stay in the campus shall have to strictly comply with the guidelines and shall not be allowed to move out of campus for petty reasons. If situation demands, they may not be allowed to move outside the hostels.

All PG, Ph.D. and dual degree V year students shall remain in offline mode for examination, classes and dissertation work. However, they are not required to mark attendance till further order.

At the time of leaving the hostels, all students residing in hostels must vacate their hostel rooms and hand over the keys of the room to the Hostel Caretaker.

In case a student does not vacate his/her hostel room, then the hostel administration of the respective hostel will have the right to vacate the hostel room and shift all belongings of the student in the cloak room. In such a case, the hostel administration will not be liable for any loss or damage to the belongings of the students in the cloak room.

The hostel mess will continue functioning till students are in the hostel.

Cloak room facility has been created for students to keep their non-essential items like mattress, bucket etc. However, the students must ensure to carry all the valuable and essential items with them.

Academic:-

For UG II year students, the classes will be in an online mode till further order. For registration they may send their registration forms through email to the respective registration in charges displayed on the Institute website.

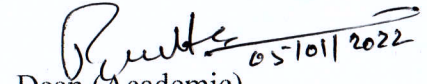

For UG III, IV and Dual Degree students, the classes shall be in an online mode till further order.

For PG students and Dual Degree 5th year, the classes, examination and dissertation shall continue to be in an offline mode as per the notified schedule.

This notice is issued with prior approval of competent authority, in supersession to all previous notices.

All students are advised to inform their parents about this notification
